PALMYRA

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

PALMYRA, VA., January 12.—With the New Year a new enterprise was established at Palmyra in the opening of the Bank of Fluvanna; B. R. Cowherd, president; Fred E. Nolting and Paul Pettit, vice-presidents; S. M. Shepherd, cashier. The week's deposits have been highly satisfactory.

The Palmyra High School was the recipient of a Christmas gift from Mr. Lucian Cooke, of Hollins, through Miss Bettie Cleveland, who has the interest of Fluvanna so much at heart. Mr. Cooke sent the school an excellent magic lantern, and during the holidays the whole school, and many of the friends of the school, were given a delightful trip to Scotland without any of the effects of traveling. In connection with the beautiful pictures, Miss Cleveland gave a charming and instructive talk on the "bonnie banks and braes." The new school building is about complete, and will add much to the comfort of the school.

Miss Vera Pettit returned to her home, Glen Burnie, during the holidays, after several weeks spent at the bedside of her brother, Colonel L. O. Pettit, of Big Stone Gap. Colonel Pettit had an illness of typhoid pneumonia, and was critically ill for some weeks. His brothers, Dr. William B. Pettit and Mr. Paul Pettit, and his sister, Mrs. William Bugbee, were also with him during his extreme illness. His many friends all over the State will be glad to hear of his complete recovery.

Dr. and Mrs. Altria Gray and Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Gray, have been visiting their parents here.

Miss Sally Shepherd and Miss Bettie Cleveland, from Hollins, were at home for the holidays.

Misses Virginia and Lucille Pettit came up from Richmond to spend Christmas at Rock Rest.

Mr. Claude Pettit and family are visiting Rock Rest.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Etchison, Jr., of Richmond, were visiting Glen Burnie during the holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. William Bugbee are spending some days at Glen Burnie.
